Ksenia Smirnov, CRNP

InnovAge Pennsylvania LIFE

"I know being independent and active is very important to seniors and their families. I am excited to be part of the LIFE program because we help seniors stay independent for as long as possible."

— Ksenia Smirnov

Ksenia earned her master of science nursing degree in adult gerontology from LaSalle University, Philadelphia. She is also certified by the American Nurse Credentialing Center as an adult-gerontology nurse practitioner. Ksenia's past experience includes work at practices and clinics in the areas of urology, osteoporosis and testosterone replacement therapy. She also speaks Russian.

Ksenia's parents were both doctors, so she is carrying on a family tradition in healthcare. She relocated from Russia to Philadelphia in the late 1990's. She has two daughters, two dogs and a cat. She enjoys spending time with family and travel.
