Steven Mack, MD

InnovAge Virginia PACE

“It’s a privilege to care for patients throughout the aging process. I enjoy being part of a talented and passionate team of professionals.”

— Steven Mack, MD

Dr. Mack earned his Doctor of Medicine (MD) degree from Tulane University School of Medicine in New Orleans, LA and a Bachelor’s Degree in medieval studies and cognitive science from the University of Virginia. Dr. Mack also completed a residency in internal medicine at the University of Colorado and a fellowship in geriatrics at the University of North Carolina. He is board certified in internal medicine and geriatrics. Dr. Mack has a special interest in dementia care.

As a father to two young children, he currently spends most of free time doing family activities. He hopes to someday have time to return to his interest in exploring the outdoors.
