

Get To Know Your PACE Nurse Practitioner

Elizabeth Ingram, AGNP-C InnovAge Colorado PACE

"I love that the PACE model promotes participant independence and that I can contribute to their quality of life by coordinating care with them, their families and the entire team."

— Elizabeth Ingram

Elizabeth attended the University of Iowa where she earned a Bachelor's Degree in Health Promotion and a Master's Degree in Nursing. She completed her Doctor of Nursing Practice in Adult-Gerontological Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Degree at East Carolina University in Greenville, North Carolina. She is board certified as an Adult-Gerontological Nurse Practitioner by the American Association of Nurse Practitioners.

Prior to joining InnovAge, she worked as a nurse practitioner in the home, nursing facilities, and hospice. She has experience in regenerative medicine and joint injections. Elizabeth also worked in hospital neurology and cardiology units.

In her spare time, she likes running, yoga and indoor cycling. She and her husband live in Denver and have two rescue dogs. Elizabeth enjoys camping, going to sporting events and concerts. She grew up in Iowa and moved to North Carolina for graduate school.
