Venice Ababat, MD

InnovAge California PACE

---

“I enjoy working at InnovAge PACE because it allows me to collaborate with participants and the interdisciplinary team members. As a team, we gain different perspectives that allow us to work with participants in a holistic way.”

— Venice Ababat

Venice earned a Bachelor Degree in Nursing from California State University in San Bernardino, CA and a Doctorate Degree in Nursing Practice, Adult Gerontology from Loma Linda University in Loma Linda, CA. Prior to joining InnovAge, she worked as a hematology and oncology nurse at City of Hope and a medical and surgical oncology nurse at Eisenhower Medical Center. Her professional interests include primary care for older adults.

Venice grew up in the San Bernardino area and she is a graduate of Rialto High School, Cal State San Bernardino and Loma Linda University. She enjoys serving the community where she has always lived. Venice finds it rewarding to contribute to the wellbeing and health of the residents of the Inland Empire.

Venice is an associate of Global Transitional Care Medical Group, a Care Partners Company, which provides California-licensed physicians and nurse practitioners to serve participants of InnovAge California PACE (ICAP).
