Joseph Johnson, MD

InnovAge Colorado PACE
(Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly)

“Great primary care is about creating a partnership between a patient and their care team. InnovAge puts the patient’s goals and individualism first.”

— Joseph Johnson

Dr. Johnson is board certified in internal medicine. He earned his medical degree at Villanova University and Drexel University College of Medicine in Philadelphia, PA. He completed his residency training at University of Colorado with his primary clinic at Denver Health Westside. Dr. Johnson served an additional year as the chief resident in quality and patient safety.

In addition to working for InnovAge, Dr. Johnson is the founder and medical director for the DAWN Clinic (Dedicated to Aurora’s Wellness and Needs). He also serves as the director of community health for Senator Rhonda Fields of Aurora.

Dr. Johnson loves to ski, hike, play games, watch the Broncos and listen to live music.
