Cecil J. Bottenbley, DMD

InnovAge Colorado PACE
(Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly)

"I enjoy talking with my patients and finding out about their lives and what they did for a living. They tell me some very interesting things!"

— Cecil J. Bottenbley

Dr. Bottenbley has a way of making patients relax when providing dental care at the PACE center.

He attended Harvard School of Dental Medicine, where he received his Doctor of Dental Medicine (DMD), and completed his Oral Surgery internship at the University Hospital in Aachen, Germany where he had to do "business as usual" in the German language. He completed his residency in General Practice at the Dept. of Dentistry, Montefiore Medical Center in the Bronx, New York, and another residency in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery at Bellevue Hospital, New York University training program.

He taught oral surgery at the University of Colorado School of Dental Medicine, and held a fellowship at New York University College of Dentistry. He enjoys fly fishing and hunting waterfowl and upland game. His greatest accomplishments are his "successful marriage to my wonderful wife, and a son I am very proud of."
